Dear Expecting Mother,

We recognize that you are looking for an adoptive family that can provide the hopes and dreams you have for the life of your baby.

We are both very thankful that you are taking the time to view our profile and get to know us.

After 7 years together, we are very excited to add a new member to our family. We are committed to offering your child a life full of unconditional love, inside a safe and warm home . Our aim is to fulfill our child's every need and we will provide the emotional and financial support our child needs to achieve all their dreams and ambitions.

As a bicultural couple (American and French), we understand the importance of diversity and respect. We believe in a good education and exposing our child to the different cultures around the world and our child will enjoy the benefits of both US and French citizenship.

We are excited for you to learn more about us in the next few pages and hope to get to know you soon too

Andrew

Words cannot come close to describing how excited I am to become a dad.

I am an adventurous spirit who loves to watch movies, play video games, cook, bake, travel, spend time with our dogs and when it is warm, I love the ocean and the activities it has to offer.

I have a close family circle where we spend our holidays and outings together with my niece and nephew.

I am fortunate to be able to work from home so our child will have the benefit of direct parental interaction all day long.

I am looking forward to teaching our child all the life lessons I have learned and to help them achieve their goals as well as give them every advantage possible so they can achieve their greatest potential in life. More importantly they will be loved and supported unconditionally.

Jonathan

I was born and raised in Paris, France. I had a happy childhood with loving parents and an older sister. I became an uncle at 13 years old. It has been one of the greatest pleasures in my life to watch my nieces and nephews grow up and become adults to start their own families.

I obtained my PhD in molecular and cellular biology in Paris and then in 2012, I moved to the US to pursue my career as a scientist. I now work as a Molecular biologist and I love the challenges and the thrills that come with every breakthrough and believe I have one of the most exciting jobs in the world.

In my spare time, I am a huge animal person and I enjoy being with my 2 pugs. I am also a gamer, an apprentice painter and an avid fan of daily exercise.

As a Frenchman who has been living in the US for the past 10 years I have enjoyed the best of both cultures. I take as much pleasure cooking French cuisine as I do celebrating new traditions to me including Halloween and Thanksgiving.

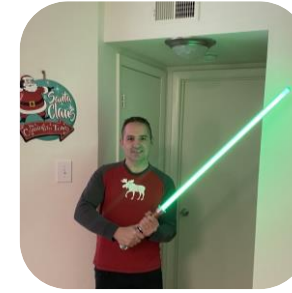

Our Family

- Both our parents are excited to become grandparents again
- We are very close to Andrew's brother Tim and spend a lot of time with his niece and nephew
- Jonathan's is very close to his nephews and his parents often come to visit us
- For the holidays, you can find us in Cape Cod with our extended family

Our Daily Lives

- We enjoy spending our free time with our dogs and walking them in the neighboring parks and beaches
- We also spend a lot of time with our friends and family
- We enjoy the cultural life Boston has to offer and you can often find us in one of the parks, museums and our local zoo and aquarium
- We are foodies and never say no to a good meal out but can also eat chicken nuggets and pizza on a Friday night
- We do not take ourselves too seriously and never miss an opportunity to goof around
- We love to travel and can't wait to share the world with our child

Our House

We recently bought our first home in Massachusetts. We renovated our cozy 3-bedroom home which offers ample room to grow our family.

We are located 2 blocks from the beach and are surrounded by parks for children to play.

We are two subway stops away from the center of Boston and all the parks and cultural life the city has to offer.

We also are just a short drive away from nature and everything New England has to offer.

We are only a few miles away from family as well.

Thank you for getting to know us as you look for the perfect family to raise your baby .

We are committed to providing your baby with a life full of love, unconditional support and opportunities.

*Respectfully,
Andrew and Jonathan*
